

UTAH NEWS.

The Oregon Short Line is enlarging its shops at Salt Lake

The Salt Lake school board will invest $20,000 in Salt Lake sinking fund bonds

Attorney General Bishop is a new aspirant for the United States district attorneyship.

State Treasurer Chipman has funds on hand to pay state warrants up to registered No 1000

Mrs Bingham, an old and feeble Springville lady, met with a fall Monday which is likely to have a fatal termination

Henry Bills of South Jordan has been brought from his herd in Rush valley, with a crushed foot, caused by his horse falling

The annual meeting of the State Kindergarten association will be held on Saturday next in the joint building at 2 p m, Salt Lake City

Salt Lake City did not succeed in securing the convention of the National Educational association. It will be held in Washington, D C.

George W Bean, a pioneer of Utah and an influential man, died at Richfield last week at an advanced age. He drove an ox cart across the plains in 1747-8

A landslide at Utah last week covered the Rio Grande Western track for 250 feet. There was one boulder 60x45x20 feet, one of the largest ever dislodged by a slide

Lehi has a farmers' union. It had its origin from an idea that the Lehi sugar factory was not paying enough for sugar beets. The organization may spread to other districts

There will be no session of the Dental congress held in Salt Lake next summer. Salt Lake dentists objected to the vice president selected for Utah, and the date has been canceled

The Rio Grande Western will absorb the Utah Central on December 22. This will give the Western entrance to Park City's business. The extension from Provo to Park City will not be affected by the purchase of the Central.

Francis Hermanns the badly wanted Salt Lake preacher murderer who is charged with murdering Annie Samuelsen two years ago, is again supposed to have been located, this time in Texas. He answers the description very well

Alice Rogers, the Salt Lake City girl who disappeared from home October 2, has been found in Kansas City, where she was found conducting a small restaurant. The mother has gone after the girl, whom she will bring back to Salt Lake City

Charles Gray, the burglar, who did a wholesale business in Salt Lake a short time since, plead guilty and was sentenced to five years in the pen. He still has two charges yet to answer for. From advices received from Montana, it appears he was released from a three years term there in June last

Some Salt Lake boys, of tender age, found a stick of giant powder recently that a burglar had left while trying to blow open a safe at the New York store. They broke it open, tasted and examined it, and came to the conclusion that it was sawdust. After several days half a stick of it was found by a police officer in a boy's possession and tenderly confiscated

Utah is being liberally treated in the matter of new postmasters. The following were appointed Friday, December 10 1897: John P Holmgren, Bear River City, Box Elder county, vice Alma Nelson, removed; J J Jones, Coalville, Summit county, vice A D Bower, removed; Fred Hayes Heler, Wasatch county, vice Richard Bridge, removed; George B Pope, Garden City, Rich county, vice H B Leppes, removed; Saturday, Dec 11: J F Taylor, Fremont, Wayne county, vice H N Young, removed; Fred Lyman, Oak City, Millard county, vice Henry Roper, removed; Lilla A Floyd, Pine Valley, Washington county, vice R G Gardner, removed; Lucy J Bligham, Salem Utah county, vice A S Ingsberg, removed; John S Whitmore, Santa Clara, Washington county, vice Rudolph Liele, removed; Sophia Distrup Sigvard, Beaver county, vice Christian Meyer, removed; George Coleman, Leasdale, Wayne county, vice Charles Snow, removed; Charles Denny, Union, Salt Lake county, vice Alma H Rock, resigned

Bear River City has a Farmers Cash union. Its object is to do away with the middleman's profits in the articles which farmers must use, such as machinery, etc. It is on the old Gange idea which flourished in the east a number of years ago

On Sunday last the people of Huntington were startled by what seemed to be a shock of earthquake which lasted several seconds. The noise is said to have resembled that of a huge snowslide or the falling of a heavy mountain side